Aaron (Yao) Wang is a partner at Merits & Tree Law Offices. Prior to that, he has gathered over two decades of legal experience with notable stints at two leading law firms.

His extensive background encompasses both litigation and non-litigation practices, with a particular focus on international litigation and arbitration, domestic and overseas financing and listing, and M&A, restructuring. Aaron specializes in international investment financing, mergers and acquisitions, and restructuring, representing clients in high-tech investment and acquisitions across developed countries or regions. He has handled several unique, non-standard, complex and sensitive transactions that cut across different practice areas and jurisdictions, and has participated in strategic negotiations for controlling industrial mergers and acquisitions (and anti-mergers).
