Eric Pang is a Hong Kong lawyer and a Partner of Pang, Li & Partners LLP in association with Merits & Tree LLP, and serves as a strategic advisor on HK and cross-border capital markets, fundraising and investment transactions. Mr. Pang focuses on capital markets, including IPOs in Hong Kong and the United States, as well as private investment funds, private equity and venture capital (PE/VC), Technology, Media and Telecommunications (TMT), asset management and mergers and acquisitions.

Mr. Pang currently serves as Chairman of the Advisory Committee for multiple private investment funds, including Limited Partnership Funds (LPF) and Open-ended Fund Company (OFC). Mr. Pang is an Independent Non-Executive Director (INED) nominee of a Nasdaq-listed technology company in New York, United States, involved in corporate governance and oversight, with the company focusing on advanced solutions in cloud computing, Internet of Things (IoT) and data-center services.

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Pang served as Managing Director of an asset management group of a Hong Kong Main Board listed company, focusing on asset management, wealth management, securities, futures and commodities. He also served as Group General Counsel of a Main Board listed company in Hong Kong and was a director of certain subsidiaries of the Group. Earlier in his career, Mr. Pang worked with leading international consultancy and U.S. law firms, as well as a renowned TMT conglomerate in Hong Kong.

Mr. Pang advises leading international investment banks, multinational corporations, asset managers and investor groups on complex cross-border transactions, particularly in relation to initial public offerings and legal matters involving the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and regulatory regimes administered by the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong (SFC). He also advises on emerging areas such as digital assets, Web3, real-world asset tokenization (RWA) and the application of artificial intelligence (AI) in legal and financial services.

Achievements

Mr. Pang has extensive experience across private practice and in-house counsel roles, including advising on the following notable matters:
