📍 Silicon Valley Beijing

Dr. Guanglei Zhang is a Partner at Merits & Tree Law Offices, Head of the Silicon Valley Office, and Lead Partner of the firm's Cross-Border Dispute Resolution practice. Prior to joining Merits & Tree, Dr. Zhang was an Equity Partner at Jingtian & Gongcheng.

Dr. Zhang has long focused his practice on dispute resolution and has extensive experience and a well-established reputation in domestic and international litigation and arbitration. He has represented domestic and international clients in hundreds of major and complex civil and commercial disputes before leading arbitral institutions, including the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC), Shanghai International Arbitration Center (SHIAC), Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration (SCIA), Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), and International Centre for Dispute Resolution of the American Arbitration Association (ICDR/AAA), as well as before the Supreme People's Court of China and courts at various other levels. His experience spans a wide range of industries, including technology, finance and securities, international trade, pharmaceuticals, new energy, internet, real estate, and industrial manufacturing. Dr. Zhang has a sophisticated understanding of the commercial dynamics of investment and financing transactions and extensive experience in complex disputes involving valuation adjustment mechanisms, equity transfers, corporate control, directors' and senior executives' liabilities, employee equity incentives, and the fundraising, investment, management, and exit of investment funds. A number of matters handled by Dr. Zhang have been recognized for their significance and innovative nature within their respective industries.

In cross-border dispute resolution, Dr. Zhang has extensive experience in international arbitration and cross-border litigation and has regularly acted as counsel and expert witness in overseas litigation and arbitration proceedings. He is particularly experienced in complex cross-border disputes involving multiple jurisdictions and parallel legal proceedings. He develops integrated dispute-resolution strategies informed by the overall dynamics of the dispute and the client's commercial objectives, while effectively coordinating lawyers and other professionals across jurisdictions. Dr. Zhang has particular expertise in developing strategies for multi-jurisdictional parallel proceedings, managing cross-border cases, and coordinating and advancing interrelated proceedings across jurisdictions.

In China-U.S. cross-border matters, Dr. Zhang brings an integrated China-U.S. perspective to clients' legal issues and commercial objectives and leads the coordination of complex disputes and related legal matters involving China and the United States. As Head of Merits & Tree's Silicon Valley Office, Dr. Zhang is committed to combining the firm's professional strengths in China with its local

U.S. practice capabilities and, based on the specific needs of each client and matter, coordinating trusted U.S. counsel and other professional resources across jurisdictions and practice areas. Through this model, he delivers sophisticated and efficient legal services to Chinese companies operating in the United States, as well as to U.S. and international clients in cross-border matters involving China.

Achievements

- Represented a leading Singapore-based multinational trading company in an intellectual property and trade secret ownership dispute with a Chinese listed company and its subsidiary. The matter lasted six years and involved multiple legal proceedings in China, the United States, and Singapore, ultimately resulting in a settlement for the client.
- Represented Hong Kong and Canadian investors in an M&A dispute with a Cayman Islands company concerning a Chinese ice cream chain. Obtained a complete victory in HKIAC arbitration and commenced enforcement and winding-up proceedings in the Cayman Islands, ultimately prompting the respondent to settle and repay the investment in full.
- Represented a leading Chinese healthcare group in an arbitration arising from a joint venture agreement with a prominent U.S. healthcare institution. The matter involved interim measures in a Chinese arbitration and U.S. court discovery in aid of the Chinese arbitration. Represented the client throughout the arbitration and related U.S. proceedings, and, together with other arbitration experts, submitted an amicus curiae brief to the U.S. Supreme Court opposing such discovery. The position advanced in the brief was adopted by the Supreme Court.
- Represented a leading Chinese real estate group in a dispute arising from a real estate investment in the State of Washington, involving U.S. arbitration, mediation, and litigation proceedings.
- Represented a Chinese real estate company in an engineering design contract dispute with a U.S. design firm in an arbitration administered by the International Centre for Dispute Resolution of the American Arbitration Association (ICDR), seated in New York.
